

Instructions:

1) Determine what you would like your child to do. Write a list or make a picture schedule

2) Determine the amount of tokens you want your child to get and let them choose what they will get when they have successfully earned their tokens (the choices can be set by you)

3) Earn the tokens

*This method is only temporary until your child starts doing all of these demands without your prompt. They will eventually phase out of this system